

Central After-School Program (CAP)

ABOUT CAP

The School District of Rhinelander is continuing our successful afterschool program called CAP (Central After-School Program). This program focuses on improving student achievement. We create an active partnership between the parents, children, program staff and the community, based on each student's individual needs. CAP is committed to providing safe, enriching, and enjoyable activities to all children and possesses both the experience and the expertise to deliver on its commitment.

WHO CAN PARTICIPATE?

CAP welcomes any student in 4th & 5th grade in the Rhinelander community. Parochial and home-schooled students are welcome! Students are not required to attend every day, but are encouraged to participate as often as possible. Please return the completed form to Central School's building secretary.

COST

All fees MUST be paid at the start of the week. If fee is not paid, student cannot attend.

Free lunch students Must fill out additional form - available from school secretary	No Cost
Reduced lunch students Must fill out additional form - available from school secretary	$5 per day $15 per week
Paid lunch students	$10 per day $30 per week
Late fee Will not be waived based on free and reduced status. Must be paid the following day to the school office.	$5 if not picked up by 5:15pm $10 if not picked up by 5:30pm

DAILY ACTIVITIES

- 3:08-3:30 - Snack and short break
- 3:30-4:30 - Tutoring, specific interventions, homework help
- 4:30-5:15 - Enrichment, various clubs offered each day, changing over the course of the year

LOCATION AND PICK-UP

All daily activities will take place at Central School. Parents are welcome to pick up their child at any time through Door 5. Most activities will take place downstairs, in the library area. Check the sign at the entry of Door 5 for any additional notes.

FIELD TRIPS AND COMMUNITY SERVICE

We are planning to take monthly field trips and complete service activities. These activities are not required but will be available for all registered students. Some may require pick-up at a different location. Advanced notice will be given and permission will be needed.

Central After-School Program (CAP) Registration

Students participating in CAP need to have a signed registration form on file with the program site coordinators. Please complete this information and return it to your school office.
